This is my passion

Maybe I never really claimed it

Because I've always done it

But you can always find me here

Good day, bad day, so-so day

You'll find me here

That's passion

That's dedication

That's loyalty

This is what I do every day

There is no room for hesitancy

There is no room for play

Sometimes the ideas flow

Sometimes the ideas stop

Either way, I go

I love it

But I never hate it

It's kind of like being in love

Or sitting high

Watching all the beauty from above

What would I do without you
You give me purpose
You keep me when I'm happy
You keep me when I'm blue
Whatever the mood
You're always here
To make me feel so good

At times in my life

I thought you weren't it

But you always came back to me

I always found you

Everyone needs a purpose

Everyone needs a passion

Everyone needs something to keep them grounded

Something to prevent them from being passive

You can't get away from it

Or it becomes stale

It becomes useless

Like a train with no rail

I'm not isolated

I'm just dedicated

Always wondering how I can be better

How I can serve this passion better

To be stronger

To be smarter

To be more creative

To break through the infinite barriers

To break through my limit/ess potential

This, is the motive

My heart has only known two loves

You are one of them

Keep going

Keep going

Keep going

Keep going

Keep going

Keep going

Keep going

Keep going

Keep going

Keep going

Keep going

Keep going

Whatever you think you can achieve in your mind
Is always another limit you've placed on yourself
You always have to do bigger
You always have to go farther
There is no end
There is never an end

Here for me in the light

Here for me in the dark

Here for me in my sleep

Here for me alone at night

Here for me always

Here for me even when I die

The love

The fight

The complacency

It must be killed

At first sight

When I get going

I'm gone

Don't bother me

Don't talk to me

Don't do anything to me

I'm gone

In the zone

In the middle of the fun

The passion only grows
It never gets old
There is too much newness
There is too much to be said
Too much to be told

You won't find us apart

Ever

I'll always be here

The two of us will always be here together

One..connected..forever

The satisfaction I feel

The satisfaction I get

The satisfaction is the best part

Once you've found it

That's it

The daily grind

It has no shine

But that alright

That's just fine

I keep my goal real close to me

It's mine

There is no end to passion

It can only grow or stifle

It goes in the direction you take it

You're a beauty

You're something so palpable

I can almost see

There is always a little more left

Even when there is nothing left

Passion needs to be cultivated

It needs to be nurtured

It needs to be loved

It needs to be matured

It needs to be fed

It needs to have a future

You can't love it one day

And leave it the next day

Don't let the passion grow cold

Don't let the passion get old

Keep it young

Keep it moldable
